

Carlyle DePriest
cacdepriest@gmail.com
carlyledepriest.com

Education:

Columbia College Chicago-Chicago, IL 2014- 2016

Major in Acting with a Minor in Voice Over and Teaching Artistry

University of Iowa – Iowa City, IA 2010 – 2013

Studied Theater Arts and Communications

Experience:

Atlanta Shakespeare Tavern Fall 2019-Spring 2020

Teaching Artist: Traveled with other Tavern teaching artists to local high schools to prepare the students to come to the Tavern for a matinee performance of Romeo & Juliet. Played improv games with the text from the show, created an insult battle using the text from the opening scene, went over the summary of the play and use of language in the show to prepare the students to hear Iambic Pentameter.

Viola Project Summer 2015-Spring 2022

Teaching Artist: Teacher for summer camps and after school programs, constructing lesson plans with other Teaching Artists, teaching empowerment to young women using Shakespeare, helping and encouraging students with their work. Teaching verse, prose, Improv games, vocal and physical warmups, and working towards a final performance for family and friends.

Adventure Stage Chicago Spring 2019

Teaching Artist: Developing a curriculum and co-teaching students of Noble College Prep Theater, monologue work, scene work, Improv games, and vocal and physical warmups, preparing them for a final performance in front of classmates.

Shakespeare All-Stars Spring 2018

Teaching Artist: Assisted teaching artist in helping the students of Ray Graham Training Center High School, a public high school dedicated to preparing students with physical and cognitive disabilities, prepare for their production of ROMEO & JULIET.